Christian Science Lecture

The public is cordially invited to attend a free lecture on Christian Science, by Virgil O. Strickler, C. S. B., member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. At Woodman hall, 2320 Washington avenue, Monday, eve, March 1st, at eight o'clock.

Under auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Ogden, Utah. 2234

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

Miss Lola Bair was hostess to a number of friends at a miscellaneous shower given at her home, 2545 Quincy avenue, last evening in honor of her sister, Miss Ruth Bair, whose engagement to Floyd T. McFarland was recently announced. The home was brightly decorated with carnations in a variety of colors and in the dining room the flowers used on the table were violets. A buffet luncheon climaxed an evening of exceptional pleasure. Those present were: Viola Stevenson, Edith Poorman, Marie Rabe, Florence McFarland,

Ruth Burkland, Hazel Butler, Rose Higgins, Agnes Crowley, Cecilia Kneipp, Helen Lemon, Vera Unander, Ruth Bair, Viola Alfred, Eva Newton, Molly Gray, Thelma Faulkner, Mrs. Maud Farley, Mrs. Vance Hobson, Miss Ruth Ogden, Florence Nye, Lola Bair, Mrs. Trulock, Mrs. Lawrence Higgins, Mrs. George Faulkner, Mrs. May Bair. Many pretty gifts were received.

FROM LONG BEACH.

Mrs. Mattie Shipley of Long Beach, California, is visiting in Ogden at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rosecoe White, for an indefinite time.

Miriam Chapter No. 14, O. E. S. The two local chapters, as well as the chapters of the Eastern Star from Salt Lake City, were well represented at a special meeting of Miriam chapter No. 14, O. E. S., in the Masonic rooms last Thursday evening when the Grand Chapter was received and the work of the order exemplified. The grand officers present were: Mrs. Lila Cheney, worthy grand matron; Mrs. Edna S. Nichols, associate grand matron; Mrs. Frances G. Shields, grand secretary; Mrs. Louise K. Dold, associate grand conductress; Mrs. Carrie J. Meyer, grand chaplain; Mrs. Ethel Bricker, grand lecturer; Mrs. Gertrude E. Benjamin, grand marshal; and Mr. Ira B. Betlow, grand sentinel.

Following the ceremonies refreshments were served in the banquet room by a splendid committee of Miriam chapter ladies. During the time the dainties were being served a quartet of exceptionally sweet voices sang "Come Where the Lilies Bloom." In the center of the room was a beautiful large basket filled with yellow acacia, symbolistic of the love of fraternity existing in the Order of Eastern Star. Lovely daffodils and pussywillows gathered from nearby mountain streams were arranged in pretty baskets placed on long mirrors lining each side of the ten tables, all giving the effect of quiet lakes in which the flowers were mirrored.

The ceremonies and attendant social hour following assured all present that the Eastern Star ladies are the most delightful of entertainers.

"The Copperhead"—It is a picture that every American school child should see.

Mrs. A. F. Sooy and Fine Baby Son Leave for Boston After Pleasant Visit in Ogden

Last Tuesday afternoon on No. 2 Union Pacific, Mrs. Austin Franklin Sooy and little son, accompanied by Miss Gladys Musgrave, left Ogden for Boston, Massachusetts where they are to join Mr. Sooy, who has just recently taken a fine position in Boston and where he is to spend his spare moments at the Boston Conservatory under the tutelage of the wonderful cellist, Adamowski. Mrs. Sooy, who is remembered in Ogden as Miss Myrtle Thatcher, one of this city's sweetest singers, is to study vocal under a very capable instructor.

For the past three months Mrs. Sooy and her little son have been visiting at the home of the parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thatcher, 2602 Adams avenue. Miss Lillian Thatcher, director of the well-known local orchestra, which bears her name, and Miss Ruth Thatcher, efficient nurse and member of the Salt Lake City Board of Health are sisters of Mrs. Sooy.

OGDENITES INTERESTED IN MRS. MESERVE.

Many Ogden friends of Mrs. Lillie B. Meserve, mother of Mrs. E. L. Howes, will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Meserve, who has been seriously ill in Florida, where she is spending the winter, is considerably improved.

FORMER OGDEN GIRL WEDS WYOMING BUSINESS MAN.

On February 19 at the church of Mountain View, Wyoming, occurred the wedding of Miss Juanita Wilson and Mr. Wm. Finnegan. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Whitsett. Miss Evelyn Fister was bridesmaid, while Mr. Ernest Dahlquist acted as best man. Little Miss Edna Wilson, sister of the bride, and Carl Fister were pretty as flower girls. The ushers were Emerson Pugh and Harry Fister.

The bride was given away by her father and was charmingly gowned in pale blue silk net on satin of the same shade, with silver lace trimming, and carried a shower bouquet of pale pink rose buds. Green and white flowers were used in the church.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the W. O. W. hall at Mountain View, where a delightful supper was served, after which a ball was given to the friends of the couple. Many beautiful presents were received.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson of Robertson, formerly of Ogden, and the groom is a son of Mrs. Christian Wansgaard of Mountain View, Wyoming, a popular young man of that place. After a short honeymoon the couple will be at home at Mountain View about March 1st where Mr. Finnegan is engaged in the automobile business.

VISITING IN OGDEN.

William T. Ogden, a prominent business man of Alberta, Canada, is visiting in Ogden for three weeks with his brother, N. O. Ogden of the N. O. Ogden company.

"The Copperhead is a wonderful presentation of the spirit of patriotism of the Civil war times, and its grip on all audiences cannot help but strengthen present-day patriotism, loyalty and Americanism." Mrs. Bowen.
